

- 1) God created heavens and earth, and every thing in them.
- 2) The man and the woman listened the voice of the Lord in the garden.
- 3) An with his great hand God took his people Israel from Egypt to be for Him a holy people, and He also gave them the good land from the river of Egypt to the big river. But they did not keep His alliance that He pacted with them over the mountain of God.
- 4) God kept Jacob from everything evil.
- 5) God saw the light he created and behold it was very good.
- 6) Samuel cut the head of the king for the eyes of all Israel.
- 7) Said the people that came over Israel: the Lord is God of the mountains.
- 8) The name of the wife of Abraham was Sarah.
- 9) Said Sarah to Abraham, his man: behold I am an old woman, and God did not give me any child.
- 10) Moshes cried with great words: God is with us, and he also gave to our hands the city and the people that is on it.
- 11) The men of Israel were in the mountains all day long until the night.
- 12) From the top of the mountain saw Moshes the land that God gave to the sons of Israel.
- 13) The old men of the people entered into the palace of the king, and the dust covered his head.
- 14) God listened to my voice, because He is my light in the day of the shadows.
- 15) Jacob listened the dream, and also looked into the question, because the dream talked about God.
- 16) And in his dream saw Jacob that behold there was a mountain very big, and its top was in the heavens.
- 17) And from all the wise men in the city there was no man that knew what the dream said.
- 18) God separated the prophet of Egypt from his prophet Moshes.
- 19) The prophets settled in the first mountain of the land and as their head was Samuel.
- 20) Behold he knew about everything, and the man knew everything from him.
- 21) Abraham signed an alliance with the king of the city.
- 22) From his palace that is in the heavens saw God his people and listened to our voice.