

Exercise 10

- 1) A voice cries in the desert.
- 2) The lord is seated in heavens and rules over the sons of man.
- 3) We cry to the Lord, and He listens to our voice.
- 4) You are just, oh Lord, that gives bread to all the flesh.
- 5) This day I took you to the heavens.
- 6) The sons of Israel went out to the desert.
- 7) You keep the way of the just, and the way of the wicked (goes) to the Seol.
- 8) Jacob went down to Egypt because there was no bread in all the land of Canaan.
- 9) These day you pact an alliance with the Lord.
- 10) Behold you send messengers to the king of Egypt you don't know that from God is the salvation of Israel.
- 11) Woe to those who eat meat every day and don't do the word of the Lord.
- 12) Thus said the Lord: I sent you to this wicked people.
- 13) The sons of the prophets went to the desert all day long and during the night they entered into the city.
- 14) It is good for the just to keep the law of the Lord, and woe to the wicked that walks through the way of other gods.
- 15) And in his dream Jacob saw. And behold the angels of God went down from the heavens.
- 16) I choose you because you are good on the eyes of the Lord.
- 17) The sons of Israel did evil on the eyes of the Lord because they didn't make difference between the just and the wicked.
- 18) All flesh knows that you are the Lord that remembers his people, Israel.
- 19) That night the lad listened, and behold a voice said: "Semuel, Semuel..."
- 20) That day we stayed at the mountain of the Lord and listened the voice of the Lord coming from heavens.
- 21) Those are the words that Moshe said to the sons of Israel in the Sinai desert.
- 22) The man was like God when he knew the good and the bad.
- 23) The people seated in the mountain listened that Israel went out of Egypt.